

Ledger Management

Our consultants meet with your key staff to gain a better understanding of:

- The credit culture of your business
- Your current policies and procedures
- Your tools and resources available

This will ensure that we have adequate checks and balances in place to facilitate a smooth working relationship with your creditors. We will then discuss and develop a ledger management solution that best fits your individual requirements.